

DRAFT FOR SECURITY APPROVAL

DATE 15 January 1957

Approved For Release 2002/05/06 : CIA-RDP78-04718A002400270017-0

NAME &amp; ADDRESS OF FIRM Central Intelligence Agency, 2030 G St., NW, Washington 25, DC

STATINTL

NAME &amp; TITLE OF REPRESENTATIVE(S)

ACCOMMODATIONS: Do you wish us to reserve a room for you at The Carolina Inn in Chapel Hill? Yes, please

Date(s) 13 - 14 Feb 1957

Accommodations preferred Single room with bath

Mode of travel and estimated times of arrival and departure Auto - 9 pm 13 Feb - 7 pm 15 Feb

INTERVIEWS:

Date(s) 14, 15 Feb 1957

Hours available Throughout both days

Prefer 10 minute ☒ or 30 minute ☐ yes interviews

Personal data about candidates, including faculty recommendations, personal, vocational and educational background, a picture, college courses and grades, will be available for your use while on campus. We will also supply a Personal Data Sheet on each student which you may keep. Individual company application forms will be filled in prior to interviews.

INFORMATION ON JOB OPENINGS

Date candidates will be expected to report for work: summer or fall 1957

Your starting salary ranges: AB ~~xxx~~ $3670/yr. MA ~~xxx~~ $4525/yr. Ph.D. $5440/yr.Physicists, chemists, ~~BSSE~~ $5335 at B.S. level; $6115 at M.S. level; $7035 at Ph.D.

Please summarize below the jobs for which you are seeking personnel. This statement is shown to students and is the basis for interesting them in your organization. If company literature supplies complete job descriptions, please list job titles.

1. Political science, history, economics majors with high scholastic standings. (Positions also available for other major who have demonstrable interest in foreign affairs.) A.B., M.A., Ph.D. levels.
2. Students who have good basic knowledge of such languages as Russian, Chinese, Arabic, Hungarian, etc.
3. Students of area programs (Far East, Latin America, Eastern European, etc.)
4. Electronics engineers, physicists, chemists (B.S., M.S., Ph.D.)
5. Geography students (M.A., Ph.D.)
6. Geography students (A.B.) for map cataloging.

Has company literature been furnished? No - none available

SELECTION OF CANDIDATES: Will you interview, for positions described above:

anyone interested in your company? We prefer selected candidates a limited number of selected candidates? U.S. citizens. High scholastic standing and/ or responsible extra-curricular activities as basis of preference.

women? (If only for certain positions, please so indicate)

Women for #6 above; some possibility for other positions men subject to military call? Yes single ☒married ☒ candidates' age range? No factor

As a guide to selecting personnel, please number the following personal qualities in 1-2-3 order of importance

1 Personality Qualities vary with position

2 Professional interest

1 Scholarship for which applicant is

3 Qualities of leadership

3 Campus activities

Approved For Release 2002/05/06 : CIA-RDP78-04718A002400270017-0

4 Personal appearance

Other: